Dear

It was very good to meet you at the AHA in Chicago, and I appreciate your taking the time to talk with Roberta and me. I was glad to have a chance to learn more about your work--especially since we share an interest in interwar naval policy--and about the new projects you have underway.

As for our staff historians' positions, I have to report that at the end of our deliberations we concluded that your qualifications do not match our needs as we see them now. I'm grateful to you for having considered this work, and sorry that we can't ask you to join us.

With all good wishes,

Yours sincerely,

J. Kenneth McDonald
Chief Historian
